

THAT TAX REFORM IN California will eventually take place by some manner or means seems to be pretty much of a sure thing, despite the fact that the state legislature gets hung-up on it.

What shape the so-called "relief" to the taxpayer is going to take and how much or when is anybody's guess.

Apparently some reduction in the state income tax burden of the lowest income group was shown in relation to the returns of 1967 as compared to those of 1966.

Whether this "trend" continued in 1968 has not yet been reported.

But in our "limb notes", a collection of trivia of one type or another which accumulates like crazy unless we do something about them, there was a news release from the state Franchise Tax Board relative to this income tax thing.

We are not sure why we filed it.

But as long as it was there, we thought we had better use it, so our file can make room for other "stuff."

We hope you don't mind if we clear our cuffs from time to time.

THE AFORMENTIONED news release reported that Californians in the $10,000 to $30,000 income level were paying a greater share of the State's personal income tax revenue while those under $10,000 were paying less.

In 1967, the $10-30,000 group paid 47 per cent of the total tax revenue compared to 43 per cent in the previous year.

Returns from those under $10,000 paid 13 per cent in 1967 compared to 17 per cent in the preceding year.

As you well know, the California personal income taxes increased considerably from 1966 to the 1967 tax year. The average tax for all returns filed in 1966 was $87.91 while the average tax for all returns filed in 1967 was $173.90.

We are well aware that the subject of taxes in any form is not a pleasant one at any time.

But we thought it was worth mentioning that some of the taxpaying public, (lower division) in the state income tax category, were getting some sort of break.

But nothing seems to have rubbed off yet for the benefit of the bulk of the state income taxpayers, middle division.

And the future does not look too encouraging either.

Anyway we can now discard that news release from our limb file. It has been used.

"Don't hold your breath" was the notation we had written on it.

IN OUR REPORT IN THIS column last week on some of the highlights of the first annual CofC golf tournament, we failed to mention one startling happening that occurred in the foursome in which we were hacking away.

It should have deserved some sort of a trophy. But it was not among the listed prize categories, for it just doesn't happen.

But it did.

Don Hebard actually split a golf ball with a vicious drive!

Shocked witnesses with us to this rarity of the fairways, were the other members of the foursome which included Jim Hurley, postmaster, and Mike Ivicovich, of Wells Fargo.

In absence of any rule covering the situation we generously allowed Don to hit off again. It could not be determined which half should be used for his next stroke.

One half, by the way, landed in another fairway.

Maybe in the next tournament there should be some provision made for prizes for such unusual golf shots, although we doubt that many golf balls will ever split either

Horses, chickens bother some people in area

This may be fast becoming a highly urbanized area but it will be sort of "down on the farm" at the City Council meeting next Monday night (July 14) when complaints about chickens and horses within the city limits are on the agenda.

One item concerns a petition submitted by 10 residents on Steinway protesting the number of horses (ponies), reported to be five in number, that are kept on the property of Mrs. Adelaide Roberts (Graves Nursery) at 1198 Steinway, in a residential zone.

City regulations specify the distance animals must be kept from adjoining properties but don't limit the number. (Except in the case of dogs in which "kennels" are defined.)

The petitioners think the city should also restrict horses.

In the chicken issue, a group of residents on Del Loma Drive, outside the city limits, are complaining about the chickens on the Norman R. Karnes property at 1819 Hacienda, within the city.

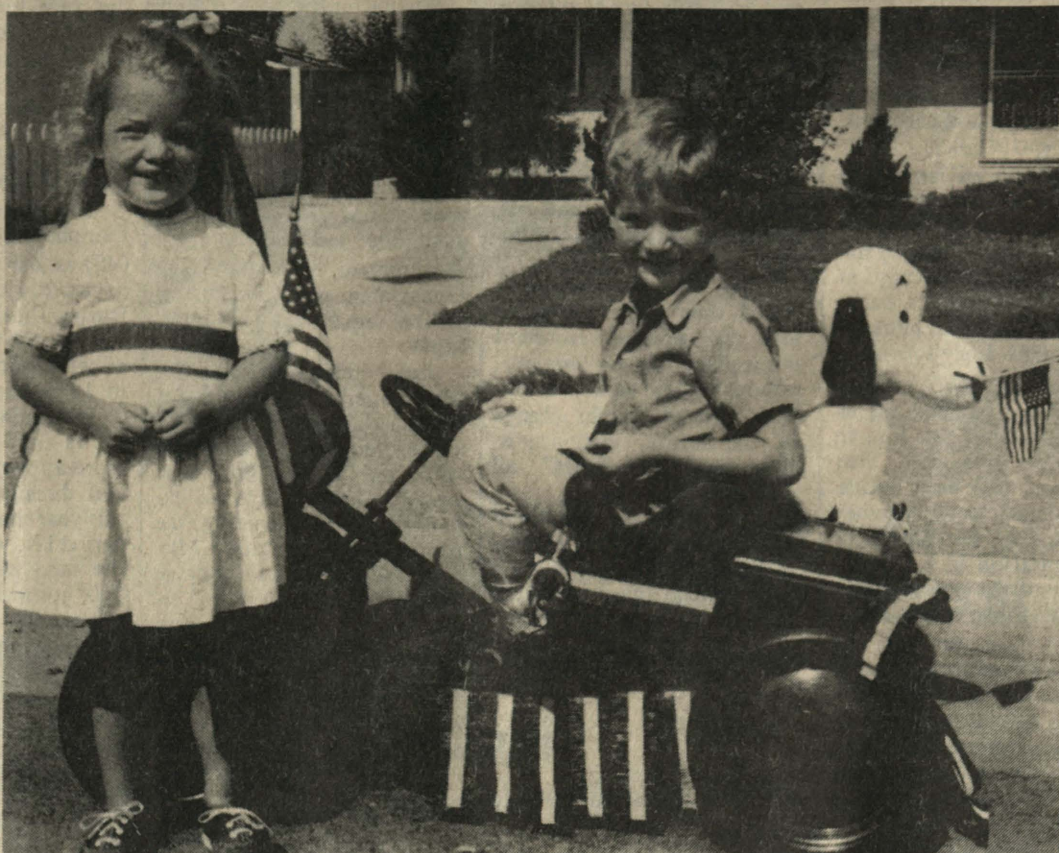

The complaint of the 12 residents headed by David L. Dalldorf, of 2888 Del Loma Drive, lists four major points in their protests:

- 1) Crowing of the roosters at all times of day and night is annoying;
- 2) The chickens cause flies and other insects;
- 3) There are other offensive odors at times;
- 4) Much dust and dirt created in the area.

TEENS IN NEWS

Rusty Hammer, 16-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Hammer, and a Del Mar sophomore, was featured in the June issue of "Seventeen" in a report on "Teens and the Ballot Box".

Rusty has worked on a number of local and national political campaigns and served as a page in the California State Assembly. He feels that 18-year-olds should have the vote and is a member of the Young Democrats organization.

SNOOPY IS PATRIOTIC TOO—Jimmy, 5, and Karen, 3, the children of Mr. and Mrs. Ron Bowron, 2243 Wren Way, made sure that Snoopy got in the act as part of the West Rincon Homeowners Association 4th of July parade. The children — and Snoopy — took the prize for the best decorated vehicle other than a bike. The little car really runs.

Last steel beam goes into place as "Towers" reaches high point

On Monday of this week, in fitting ceremonies, including the placing of an American flag on top, the last steel beam went into place on the most spectacular construction project in Campbell's history, the 18-story "The Towers" at Campbell and Bascom avenues.

The first steel columns on the massive building went into place early in April this year.

Kevin Salmon, leasing agent, for the Fred Sahadi-Pittsburgh Des Moines Steel, joint developers for "The Towers" and adjacent "The Prune Yard" shopping center, said that construction is running 29 days ahead of schedule.

The time table calls for the building to be ready for occupancy in January, 1970. But Salmon optimistically indicated that it might be possible to move the occupancy date ahead to December of this year.

With "The Towers" now having reached its ultimate height, the "skyline" of Campbell has reached a new perspective, for the 18-story office building is visible from almost any part of the Santa Clara Valley floor.

With the completion of the steel portion of the building, the other phases of the construction of the dramatic structure will now swing into full stride.

Maximum illumination and view area will be provided by a basic structural design of continuous and uninterrupted windows around the perimeter of each floor, resulting in the total elimination of blank exterior wall space.

The various phases of the construction during the past three months, and especially during the recent weeks when the massive steel superstructure had almost "reached the sky", provided an ideal photographic setting either from the superstructure itself or from the ground, as the series of photos below will indicate.

The top row from the left was taken from the inside of the elevator that takes workers and "others" up the outside. The two "tin-hatters" are Kevin Salmon (left) leasing agent for the project, and George Vierhus, editor and publisher of The Press.

Brent Ulrich, production manager of The Press took that shot on the ninth floor. The shot of the freeway was also from the ninth floor. The other pictures need no explanation.

Low-cost houses concern Council

How the City of Campbell can assist in the efforts to get low-income housing in the area will highlight the agenda of the City Council next Monday night, July 14.

Discussion of the problem and possible action is a direct result of the study session at which no action could be taken held last week between councilmen, city staff and representatives of United Progreso Arriba, an organization that is deeply concerned with the plight of "displaced persons" due to "progress".

The study session was scheduled at the request of United Progreso Arriba at a "demonstration" during a previous City Council meeting when approximately 65 persons with banners and placards marched on the City Hall to emphasize the housing problem.

At the study session, representatives of United Progreso Arriba, headed by Paul Roybal, Mrs. Susan Rolstad, Mrs. Bernice Ray, Mrs. Clara N. Gregg and Lupe Jordan, emphasized the grievances of the poor families who must seek other housing when their present abodes are demolished either because of the city's condemnation program for sub-standard buildings or to make room for new structures, such as the civic center.

The United Progreso Arriba people claimed that the city was being "cruel", especially in the N. Central-Grant-First St. area which is now being cleared for the civic center complex. They claimed that the people had been served eviction notices without any thought as to where they could go.

City Manager Bob Stephens in answer claimed that no family had ever been actually "evicted" by the city administration. He also pointed out that the city in acquiring the needed parcels for the civic center dealt exclusively with the property owners and it was the property owners who specified when their houses would be ready for demolition after the close of escrow.

Present also at the discussion was John Burns, director of the County Housing Authority, who cited the need for more available housing in the area in which the displaced persons could go.

Discussion at the study session also centered around the problem of high land prices, high interest rates created by scarce money, and the lack of federal funding. These factors, it was reiterated

Retail sales in city show gain

Taxable retail sales in Campbell, the basis for sales tax revenue for the City of Campbell, soared to a new high in 1968 with a total of $51,522,000, and based on the first quarter returns this year, retail sales are continuing to rise.

Total retail taxable sales in the first quarter this year were $13,038,000 compared to $10,939,000 for the same period in 1968, a gain of $2,099,000 for the quarter.

The building materials category was the leader in sales in Campbell during 1968 with a total of $11,277,000, followed closely by home furnishings and appliances with $10,342,000.

For the first quarter this year, however, home furnishings shot ahead of building material with $2,535,000 compared to $2,159,000 in sales. Home furnishings showed a gain in the first quarter of $175,000 ($2,360,000 to $2,535,000) while building materials dropped in total sales from $2,283,000 in the first quarter in 1968 to $2,159,000 this year.

Los Gatos edged Campbell in the retail sales picture for the entire year of 1968 by ringing up a total of $52,985,000 compared to Campbell's $51,522,000.

But as usual, auto dealers and supplies accounted for more than 50% of the total retail sales picture in Los Gatos. During 1968 auto dealers handled $27,052,000 in sales, compared to $462,000 in Campbell listed in that division.

Los Gatos forged ahead of Campbell also in the first quarter sales this year, $13,876,000 compared to $13,038,000. In the first three months auto dealers and supplies accounted for more than half of the Los Gatos total

Better understanding

Airing of the specific community problems at a round-table discussion "forum" as was the case at the study session between representatives of the United Progreso Arriba and the City Council last week can be of extreme value to all parties concerned and the community as a whole.

To gain full value, however, each side must be considerate and courteous of the other and the discussions, of necessity, must be kept under control and should not stray too far afield from the point of issue.

We are happy to report that the aforementioned "forum" was conducted with decorum, courtesy and restraint.

The people from United Progreso Arriba and the city representatives should be commended for this excellent display of tactfulness on both sides on an issue over which the group easily could have become so emotionally involved that the objectives would have been lost.

The "forum" was a great "door-opener" in a sense.

We think it proved to United Progreso Arriba that the City Council, as the "City", were not the villains that some of the more volatile would have them believe.

And we think the city councilmen learned that the leaders of the United Progreso Arriba were sincere in their concern over the acute housing problem that has faced the low-income group in the community for some years.

But unlike many such confrontations, there was a common denominator at the very start.

The "City" is concerned about the housing problem and has been for a long time.

City officials have long been aware of the situation and recognized that it could not be ignored.

The "City" is an integral part of the County Housing Authority and has indicated its willingness to work with that body in every way possible.

But the basic value of the "forum" was that the representatives of United Progreso Arriba were able to recite "specifics" and nothing can be more effective than chapter and verse of any given situation.

The value then of such a confrontation is to bring those who are directly affected into rapport with those who are charged by law, i.e., "The City", to do the "affecting".

We don't mean to imply that establishing communication can be all sweetness and light.

There will be those on both sides who are not interested in the various facets that complicate the problems.

It probably could be said by some on the "City" side and with some possible merit that the "City" is not in the "housing business" and its hands are tied. Sorry.

On the other hand, United Progreso Arriba could be so impractical in its presentation that any relation between its visionary "demands" and practical application of the problem would be merely coincidental.

As a result of the study session, the "City" is more aware of the housing problem, as it affects the people themselves.

United Progreso Arriba now should also be better informed as to the City's position and should now realize that it takes more than mere desire to get results.

In our opinion, nothing can be gained by implied threats from leaders who are unaware of all the implications and ramifications that are involved in any given situation.

It is easy to say "you WILL do this or else". But until all the aspects are known of any given situation, such threats, in our opinion, not only weaken the appellate's case but strengthen the opposition.

So far, the United Progreso Arriba - City sessions have been conducted in an amicable manner. That is the way it should be.

Only in the beginning at the "demonstration" did Paul Roybal, leader of the movement, indicate some veiled threats of what might happen, if no help was forthcoming.

On the whole, we think the meeting between the "Arriba" and the "City" served a useful purpose.

Each side now should recognize that, although a common denominator on housing may have been established, how to solve it still remains the problem.

United Progreso Arriba now should also be aware that the "City" must be concerned with problems of ALL its citizens and not just one segment.

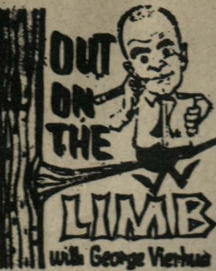

The city administration has a mandate from its citizens to build a civic center. The citizens voted to tax themselves for this, as well as a park, fire station and street improvements.

That bond money cannot legally be diverted to other uses, such as to provide housing.

On the other hand, we are certain that the "City" will explore all alternatives that could possibly offer some solution to an acute and human problem.

We sincerely hope a better understanding has now been reached. By moving together the common objective can be reached.

ST. LUCY'S HAS A NEW associate pastor in the person of Father John T. Brennan who takes the place of Father Charles Simpson who has been transferred to St. Gabriel's in San Francisco.

Father Brennan, a native of San Francisco, is newly ordained and was serving as a deacon at the Church of the Transfiguration in San Jose just prior to his assignment to St. Lucy's.

He introduced himself to his new parish from the pulpit at his first Sunday here in Campbell in an effective, sincere and candid homily in which he listed his background and noted his pleasure at being in St. Lucy's parish.

He recalled, while growing up in San Francisco, he always considered San Jose an agricultural area only. That impression had been noticeably changed, he noted, when he arrived at the Church of Transfiguration in San Jose.

Some of the congregation, especially those who had broken their backs almost in the recent successful park bond election for Campbell, and who are extremely proud of this community's separate identity, cringed slightly at Father Brennan's concluding remark.

"I'm happy to be here in San Jose", the young father noted at the end.

FORMER MAYOR BILL Smeed, who is now serving his second term on the City Council, is currently engrossed in a special study course.

Naturally, Bill, a top-notch attorney, has always sought to increase his knowledge of many and varied subjects through study and special classes, although it should be noted that he did not really seek out this particular class.

You might say it sought him.

But he did have a choice, sort of.

He did NOT have to take that six-week driver training course because of that traffic citation.

The judge offered an alternative.

But, then, Bill hadn't planned much for that particular hour every Saturday morning for six weeks anyway.

In all fairness to Bill, it should be noted that Smeed maintains he didn't deserve the traffic ticket in the first place.

What else is new?
Oh yes.
It WAS a Campbell cop.

ONE OF THE MOST unique and enjoyable events of the year is the annual luau of the Campbell JayCees at which the new officers of the year are officially installed.

For the past two years it has been held in the spacious backyard of the home of Mr. and Mrs. Al Blaine, of Aero Pharmacy. Al is vice-president of the JayCees.

But really, although the installation of officers is naturally an auspicious occasion, actually it is the pig that really is the "star" of the evening and the first arrival at the party. It takes nine hours of roasting in the ground with banana leaves and stuff for the pig to be ready.

The luau is as authentic as it is possible to make it on the "mainland" and a number of the JayCees have now become virtual "pros" in the luau field because of their experience in recent years.

Planning Commission holds line in one single-family zone case

A pocket of five lots along Bucknall Road between Fulton and Whitwood Lane, just west of San Tomas Road, should not be rezoned from single-family to multiples until an orderly development plan is presented for all five, the Planning Commission decided Monday night.

Changing the zoning on one lot in the middle, the Commission indicated, would be considered "spot zoning" for the strip, although there was already R-2 zoning on three sides of the parcels.

By a unanimous vote then the Commission denied the application of W. F. Byrnes and H. A. Mathews requesting that the lot they owned in the middle of the five be rezoned from R-1 to R-2-S.

Telling blows against the proposed rezoning were struck at the meeting by Mrs. John P. Crass, of 17725 Bucknall Road, owner of the lot to the east and by Mrs. Della Garthwait, of 17685 Bucknall, owner of property on the west.

Both claimed they preferred their large residential lots and present semi-rural atmosphere of their property, although they admitted that their attitude might change in the future, inasmuch as they had "multiples" all around them.

By a 5-2 vote, the Commission approved the request of Pan Pacific Properties for a zone change from residential to commercial at 262 Sunny-oaks, just off Winchester, to allow a convenience market to be built on it.

This marked the second time the request had been before the Commission. The first time the Commission denied the rezoning request for high-way commercial. The decision was also upheld by the City Council by a split vote.

It was felt then by the commissioners and councilmen that extending highway commercial on Sunnyoaks would not follow the intent of that type of zoning. A big factor for the approval action was that the residents of the immediate area had indicated they desired the convenience market.

Voting for the zone change were Ed Pack, Merrill Grim, Dale Scott and Thayer Lyons. In opposition were Jack Healey and Frank Klein.

Two items on the agenda, one for a use permit for a service station and one for a zone change to allow a multiple-family low-cost housing development, both in the San Tomas area, were withdrawn at the request of the applicants.

Len Feldheim, of the development firm, told the Commission that a new zone change request would be filed with the Commission later which would include an expanded area, including the proposed service station adjacent to San Tomas Shopping Center that had been requested by Leuden F. Bennett and Lee R. Colvett.

Approval was granted Ira Kirkorian for a pet zoo to be located at Kirkwood Plaza to be operated in August and for plans for a warehouse for F. Oldham at 240 Vietenheimer Lane.

The Commission also approved for changes in parcel maps requested by Ralph Doetsch, Sr., at 1580 and 1600 Dell Ave., and for Joseph R. Boudreault at 356-358 McGlincey Lane.

with $7,747,000.

Campbell outshines Los Gatos in service stations both in number and in sales.

In Campbell, 45 stations did $1,204,000 in total sales last year while in Los Gatos, 25 stations totaled $630,000.

During the first quarter this year Los Gatos had one station less than shown for last year (24) and three less than were in operation during the first period in 1968. The 24 stations turned out $146,000 in sales while the 27 in 1968 did $140,000.

The count of stations in Campbell remains the same (45) as last year. But business apparently took a slight drop. During the first three months this year the stations accounted for $258,000 while in 1968 they did $282,000.

Incidentally, the report shows that there were three more apparel stores in Campbell during the first quarter this year than during the same period last year (12 to 9). But the nine in 1968 did $144,000 compared to $128,000 this year by the 12.

There was one less general merchandise outlet (6 to 5) this year. But the five did $186,000 compared to the six doing $135,000.

The same number of drug stores (10) did $279,000 in 1969 to $271,000 in 1968.

In 1968 the 10 drug stores accounted for $1,177,000 in total sales in Campbell.

Los Gatos also lists 10 drug stores. In 1968 they did $1,721,000 and for the first quarter this year they did $410,000.

There were 19 food stores reporting last year for $4,563,000. (The 20 stores in Los Gatos did $4,050,000.)

During the first quarter this year, Campbell had gained two more food stores (21) and the stores did $1,148,000 in taxable sales. In the first quarter last year when 20 stores reported the sales were $753,000.

The 18 food stores in Los Gatos reporting in 1968 did $553,000 in the first quarter ated time and again, limit private capital developing low-income housing.

Some of the representatives of United Progreso Arriba thought the city should get into the housing field by acquiring available land through options. Some thought that under new legislation it was possible for the city to get property owned by another public agency (such as the county) by just paying one dollar.

No city official had heard of such a program. Councilman Ralph Doetsch also asked "where is all this so-called 3% money that is supposedly available".

The study session was kept ience in recent years.

THE "PRE-GAME" PROGRAM starts with the selection of the unfortunate pig itself.

Verl Weitzel has generally headed the "selection committee" that goes directly to the ranch where the hogs roam semi-wild. The second semi-wild. The selection committee generally has some wild tales of their adventures in the field.

The JayCees are fortunate also in having a professional meat-cutter from Safeway, Mike Van Duyn, as a member.

Naturally it falls on Mike to get the animal ready for the roasting.

Mike claims he has trained others now for this task, who will be available in the future.

"Director" of the actual luau is Roger Hughes, who learned the tricks of the trade in Hawaii, where he grew up and he always does a superb job.

But the group generally tackles all their projects with the same enthusiasm.

The JayCees since their establishment in Campbell have made an excellent civic record in getting things done under top-notch leadership.

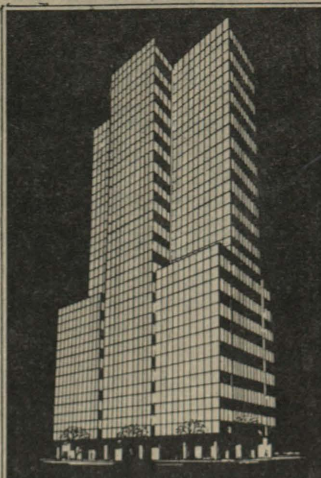

We expect the group to continue its good work this year under Nozer Haladwala, whose name alone is quite a project in itself. Nozer succeeded Jerry Gomes.

The luau seems to offer the spark that sets them off. It was a good one this year, so we expect big things from the JayCees.

Frank Marotti claims Miss Marino as his bride

White and yellow were the colors chosen by Jacqueline Suzon Marino when she met her bridegroom, Frank Michael Marotti, at the St. Lucy's Church altar. Jacqueline was radiant in an organza gown fashioned in an A-line style accented with pearls and reembodyered lace. Her head piece of lace and pearl petals secured her shoulder length bouffant veil, and she carried a colonial bouquet of white daisies and baby's breath.

Jacqueline is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick James Marino of Kirk Road, San Jose. She is a graduate of Camden High School and West Valley Junior College.

Mrs. Gregory Warrick preceded Jacqueline down the aisle of St. Lucy's Church in a yellow taffeta and dotted Swiss gown, carrying a yellow and white daisy bouquet. Jacqueline chose Mrs. Richard Flynn and Miss Suzann Hall as her bridesmaids. They were gowned in dresses identical to the matron of honor and carried white daisies.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis J. Marotti of 931 Monica Lane. A Campbell High School graduate, he is presently attending San Francisco State where he is majoring in physical education and history. He is employed in San Bruno.

Reading the double ring ceremony was the Rev. Charles R. Simpson.

For the wedding day, Mrs. Marino, mother of the bride wore an aqua blue coat dress with blue accessories and Mrs. Marotti, mother of the groom, wore a green coat dress with white accessories. Both mothers accented their ensembles with yellow daisy corsages.

The groom's brother, Robert L. Marotti, served as best man, with Pat Hartigan, Dave Maas and Sisto Arena ushering. Singing "The Lord's Prayer" for the young couple was Mrs. James A. Sykes, the bride's aunt.

Following the wedding ceremony the 200 guests were greeted by the newly-weds at the poolside home of the bride's parents where they cut their three-tiered cake which was decorated with the daisy theme. The patio area also carried out the daisy decor.

The new Mrs. Marotti chose a pink and yellow dress with pink accessories for her going away ensemble to south Los Angeles, with another wedding trip planned to Hawaii in August. Mr. and Mrs. Marotti will be making their future home in San Francisco.

Members of the West Valley Senior Action sewing club are now meeting twice a month and with three sewing machines to operate, they are able to turn out many much needed items for hospital usage.

A pot luck lunch is enjoyed by the "sewing members" who work through the day. During the last month members of the club were active in effecting the passage of the bond issue for the parks and recreational areas which will be within walking distance for many of the senior citizens. In addition to promoting the bond issue, they found many new members for the organization.

Action toward solving the transportation problem for those without private autos is one of the major concerns of the club and seven members recently participated in a workshop in an attempt to solve this problem.

Mrs. Elaine Buchholz will convene her first meeting as president of the American Legion Auxiliary, West Valley Unit 158 on Friday, July 18, at 8 p.m. at the American Legion Hall on Dell Ave.

At that time the new slate of officers will assume their seats including Mrs. Jonnie Mc Fall, sergeant at arms; Mrs. Myrtle Rhinehart, marshal; and executive board members Mesdames Iva Kaber, Erlene Rose and Dee Strickland.

Bidders may specify any number of separate interest rates irrespective of the maturities of the bonds, and the same rate or rates may be repeated as often as desired; provided, however, that (i) the difference between the highest and lowest coupon rates specified in any bid shall not exceed one and one-half per cent; (ii) each interest rate specified must be in a multiple of 1/20 of one per cent and a zero rate of interest cannot be specified; (iii) no bond shall bear more than one rate of interest, no interest payment shall be evidenced by more than one coupon and supplemental coupons will not be permitted; (iv) each bond shall bear interest from its date to its stated maturity date at the interest rate specified in the bid; (v) all bonds of the same maturity shall bear the same rate of interest; and (vi) any premium must be paid in bank funds as part of the purchase price, and no bid will be accepted which provides for the cancellation and surrender of any interest coupon or for the waiver of interest or other concession by the bidder as a substitute for bank funds. PAYMENT: Both principal and interest are payable in lawful money of the United States of America at the San Francisco Main Office of Bank of America National Trust and Savings Association, in San Francisco, California, or at holder's option, at the principal office of First National City Bank, in New York, New York, or at the office of The First National Bank in Chicago, Illinois.

TAX EXEMPT STATUS: In the event that prior to the delivery of the bonds the income received by private holders from bonds of the same type and character shall be declared to be taxable under any Federal Income Tax laws, either by the terms of such laws or by ruling of a Federal Income Tax authority or official which is followed by the Internal Revenue Service, or by decision of any Federal court, the successful bidder may, at his option, prior to the tender of the bonds by the City, be relieved of his obligation under the contract to purchase the bonds and in such case the deposit accompanying his bid will be returned.

LEGAL OPINION: The legal opinion of Messrs. A copy of the legal opinion, certified by the officer in whose office the original is filed, will be printed on each bond without charge to the successful bidder.

TERMS OF SALE

Highest Bid: The bonds will be awarded to the highest bidder considering the interest rate or rates specified and the premium offered, if any. The highest bid will be determined by deducting the amount of the premium bid (if any) from the total amount of interest which the City would be required to pay from the date of the bonds to their respective maturity dates at the coupon rate or rates specified in the bid, and the award will be made on the basis of the lowest net interest cost to the City. The purchaser must pay accrued interest from the date of the bonds to the date of delivery. All interest will be computed on a 360-day year basis. The cost of printing the bonds will be borne by the City.

Right of Rejection: The City Council reserves the right, in its discretion, to reject any and all bids and to waive any irregularity or informality in any bid.

Prompt Award: The City Council will take action awarding the bonds or rejecting all bids not later than 24 hours after the expiration of the time herein prescribed for the receipt of proposals, unless such time of award is waived by the successful bidder.

Prompt Delivery: Delivery of the bonds will be made to the successful bidder at the San Francisco Main Office of Bank of America National Trust and Savings Association, in San Francisco, California, as soon as the bonds can be prepared, but not prior to the date of the bonds. Payment for the bonds must be made in bank funds immediately available to the City in San Francisco, California.

Right of Cancellation: The successful bidder shall have the right, at his option, to cancel the contract of purchase if the City shall fail to execute the bonds and tender the same for delivery within sixty (60) days from the date of sale thereof, and in such event the successful bidder shall be entitled to the return of the deposit accompanying his bid.

Form of Bid: All bids must be for not less than all of the bonds hereby offered for sale and for not less than the par value thereof and accrued interest to date of delivery. Each bid, together with bidder's check, must be enclosed in a sealed envelope addressed to the City Council of the City of Campbell and endorsed "Proposal for City of Campbell 1969 Park Bonds, Series A." All bids must either be mailed to the City Council at the City Hall, 75 North Central Avenue, Campbell, California, in time to be received by 8:00 P.M. (P.S.T.) on July 22, 1969, or delivered to the City Council at said place by said time on such date.

Bid Check: With each bid must be submitted a certified check or cashier's check for $5,000 drawn on a bank or trust company transacting business in the State of California, payable to the order of the Treasurer of the City of Campbell to secure the City from any loss resulting from the failure of the bidder to comply with the terms of his bid. Checks of all bidders (except the successful bidder) will be returned by the City by mail promptly following the sale date above specified. No interest will be paid upon the deposit made by the successful bidder.

Estimate of Net Interest Cost: Bidders are requested, but not required, to supply an estimate of the total net interest cost to the City on the basis of their respective bids, which shall be considered as informative only and not binding on either the bidder or the City.

Official Statement: The City has caused an official statement to be prepared, a copy of which will be furnished upon request addressed to Schwabacher-Rafferty & Co., 625 Market Street, San Francisco, California 94105, the City's financing consultant.

There is no controversy or litigation pending concerning the validity of the above issue, the corporate existence of the City, or the title of the officers thereof to their respective offices, and the City will furnish to the successful bidder a no-litigation certificate certifying to the foregoing as of and at the time of the delivery of the bonds.

Detroit member heads Kiwanis

Kiwanis International last week selected Robert F. Weber, a partner in a Detroit Investment and real estate firm, to head the organization.

Weber was elected at the 54th annual convention in Miami-Miami Beach, Florida. He will lead the international service organization of 275,000 members in 5,600 clubs. The clubs are located throughout the United States, Canada, Mexico, the Caribbean, the Far East, Western Europe, South and Central America, New Zealand and Australia.

The new president has been a Kiwanian for 32 years and has served in many offices on the local, district and national level.

Don King, an employee of the city's public works department, and a past president of the Campbell JayCees, received the coveted M. Keith Upson memorial award given annually to 10 outstanding state JayCee vice-presidents in the nation.

The award was made at the JayCee national convention held in Louisville, Ky., and attended by King.

He became a charter member of the Campbell chapter in which he served as project chairman, director, vice-president, state director and president.

In 1968 he was elected governor of district four of the California JayCees (state vice-president). Under his leadership, the district was named the "most outstanding district" in the state.

He was named "outstanding district governor" by Rob Reifschneider, state president and nominated as California's entrant for the Upson award.

During the next year (the last that King will be able to remain a JayCee under the age limitation), King will serve as a director of the U. S. JayCees, a position to which he was elected last May at the state convention.

ON CAPITOL HILL

with "Charlie" Gubser

One of the most difficult votes I have cast as a Member of Congress was on June 30 in support of an extension of the 10% surcharge. Mail from my constituency had been running at least ten to one against the extension.

The course of responsibility as I saw it voted me to be one of the five votes by which the surcharge tax squeaked by. To put it simply, I felt that because of inflation my constituents would pay much more in higher prices than they would have paid through the surcharge. The cruelest part of inflation is that it hits the little man hardest and particularly pensioners and those on fixed incomes.

Much of the truth about the surcharge has been misunderstood and sometimes misrepresented. Some argue that the surcharge has not curtailed inflation because the consumer price index in March rose by what amounted to a 9.6% annual rate. This argument is impressive but it overlooks the inevitable lag time between cause and effect of a tax increase. Businesses always react faster than individuals and their increased tax rate is immediately passed on to consumers. On the other hand the general public is slower to react and the effect of curtailed purchasing power from last year's surcharge is just now being felt.

In April the consumer goods index was down to 7.6% (on an annual basis). In May it went down to 3.7% and the figures for June will probably show a further decline. As Chairman Mills (D-Ark.) said during the debate: "...It looks like we are just beginning to get hold of inflation..."

Defeat of the surcharge extension would have unleashed an inflationary psychology which would have been uncontrollable. As Chairman Mills said: "Projected surpluses would have turned into deficits", and an administrative deficit of $5.1 billion would balloon to $14.3 billion. This would force the Treasurer to bid in the money market to fund our deficit and interest rates, already too high, would go higher.

Opponents seized upon the currently popular demand for tax reform as a reason to oppose the surcharge extension. During the debate, Chairman Mills threw down the gauntlet to them. He clearly promised that the House will have the chance in the next month to vote on a tax reform bill including oil depletion allowance and other "loopholes" such as the tax advantage given to married couples as opposed to a single person. It appears we will have a far reaching tax reform bill.

I predict that this will stimulate an almost unprecedented flood of mail and that some of the country's ultraliberals, who vote for every spending measure and oppose the taxes required to pay for them will be embarrassed by the extent to which the tax reform bill they have cried for will actually go.

As Chairman Mills warned: "I think some of you are going to feel that we have developed a bullet that may be just a little too hot to bite into...When we bring the tax reform bill here, I hope the membership of the House will be as strong for tax reform as it is today."

Vietnam war claims life of Spec. 4 Smith

Funeral services were held Saturday for Army Spec. 4 John C. Smith who was killed in Vietnam on June 23. The 19 year old soldier was to have been transferred to Hawaii for a rest and rehabilitation leave just a few days before he was killed in combat with enemy forces.

Smith was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Smith, 1735 Hayford Drive. He was a 1967 graduate of Campbell High School and had resided in this area for 14 years before his death. A native of Marysville, he would have been 20 on Sept. 18.

Besides his parents he leaves his brothers, Ron, Richard and sisters, Sharon, and Mrs. Barbara Carr, all of the Campbell area and Mrs. Karen Woodford of Washington.

Services were held at the Campbell Memorial Chapel on Saturday, July 5 with the Elder J. L. Shoemaker officiating. The final resting place for the young soldier was in San Jose.

WHISTLERS

An 18th century practice was to have servants whistle when carrying food to the dining area so that they could not taste the food they were carrying.

MAY WINNERS—Lowell Benson (right) of Benson's Campbell Cleaners awards prizes to the three age-group winners in the Scotchgard coloring contest conducted by the cleaners.

of 1852 Shulman, San Jose; Laurie Chicoine (5) of 1852 Shulman and Benson.
Three more winners will soon be named for June.

Campbell Fire Department trucks were called out ten times over the last week to extinguish fires caused by fireworks. Eight of the fires were grass fires and two were fires in trees.
Fireworks fires burned on Millich, Hamilton, Ginden, Loyalton, Old Orchard Rd., Silacci, Campbell, Sunnyoaks, Gale and Kenneth avenues.
A kitchen at 141 W. Hamilton Ave., Apt. 4, suffered extensive damage when a deep fryer caught on fire. Monte DeSalle was badly burned on the arm when he attempted to take the flaming grease out of the kitchen and ran into the wall, scattering the burning material over his arm. He was treated at the hospital for burns.
Other fire calls were as follows:

- JUNE 30 - 260 E. Campbell Ave. Needless call.
- JULY 2 - 2135 S. Bascom. Rescue.
- JULY 3 - San Tomas Expwy. at Nello. Gasoline spill.
- JULY 4 - Off ramp Freeway 17 at Camden. Auto fire.
- JULY 4 - 60 W. Campbell Ave. Grass fire.

Former pastor serves as senate chaplain

Of interest to many Campbell residents is a clipping recently sent The Campbell Press by Mrs. Alice Cowdrey of Dunster Drive, about the Rev. Robert L. Carlson, former Congregational Church of Campbell minister in the 1940's. Rev. Carlson is now serving as minister for the Congregational United Church of Christ in Sacramento and is also the California Senate chaplain.
Two of Rev. Carlson's prayers were quoted in the clipping in which he protested against "embezzlement and price rigging and income tax evasion of the affluent", and called upon the senate members to "deliver the president pro-tempore and all others who preside daily from the anxiety of wondering when a quorum will be present".

- JULY 4 - Harriet & Pollard. Needless call.
- JULY 4 - Freeway 17 near 215 Union. Grass fire.
- JULY 6 - McGlincey & Union. Wires down.
- JULY 6 - Space No. 20, Hamilton Trailer Park. Rescue.

NEW APPOINTMENT—James R. Dahms, 32, a native of Campbell and Campbell High School graduate, has just been named assistant manager of The Crocker-Citizens National Bank's Millbrae office. A resident of 150 W. Hamilton Ave., Dahms is the son of Mrs. Helen Dahms, the grandson of Mrs. Catherine Ferro, the nephew of Theodore Ferro, and the brother of Richard Dahms, all of Campbell. He was married recently to the former Miss Joellen Kuchner, of San Jose. Dahms has been associated with the Crocker-Citizens Bank since 1961, having started as a trainee at the Meridian-Hacienda office. He attended San Jose City College before entering the banking field.

Nixon appoints Farley to ambassador post

Phillip Farley, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Farley of Alice Ave., has been accorded the personal rank of Ambassador during the tenure of his service as alternate representative of the United States of America at the strategic arms limitations talks in Brussels scheduled for August with representatives of the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics.
The appointment was made May 13 by President Richard Nixon, who, in his letter of appointment, concluded with "I wish you success in this important assignment".
The Honorable Farley is a graduate of Campbell elementary schools and Campbell High School, and received his doctorate at the University of California.
He was with the Atomic Energy Commission for several years before his association with the state department. He then served with NATO for five years, was then appointed Assistant Secretary of State in charge of foreign political affairs in 1967.

Farley, who will be 53 in August, is married and has three children, two boys and one girl. His family is presently staying in this country until the Brussels talks get under way and some indication is received as to how they are proceeding.

COLONIAL OFFERS A FIVE YEAR GUARANTEE ON MONEY

(Here's one guarantee that gives you your money back plus 30%)

Colonial Savings has the ideal guarantee. It guarantees you 5 1/4 % interest, compounded daily for five years... or four years... or three years (we even let you decide the time). That means your money will grow 30% if you take the five-year plan giving you an average yield of 6% per year.

These high-yield accounts can be opened with a minimum deposit of $1,000. And you're not locked in. Your money can be withdrawn at the end of any quarter (and you get full interest to that date) in case of hardship.

One more thing. That five-year guarantee is good even if you drive more than 50,000 miles.

Any wonder, Colonial is known as a pleasant association?

Robert D. Folendorf said the cost estimate for the task was $89,000. The board authorized Superintendent Wallace W. Hall to call for bids on the project.

In other actions the board resolved:
To postpone consideration on proposed amendments to board policies and procedures submitted by the Associated Student Body pending further clearance by Santa Clara County Counsel. Amendments concern students rights and freedoms, literature distribution, guest speakers and student discipline.

To authorize purchase of furniture for a staff lounge by accepting a bid from Breuners Company.
To conduct a special meeting at 8 p.m. on July 10 for consideration of the proposed 1969-70 school year budget, proposed bond election, and legislative and personnel matters.

To adopt a written civil defense plan for West Valley College to be put in operation in the event of an emergency.
To authorize a re-issue of bids on 24 transcription machines for use in the medical assisting program. Such machines already tentatively approved did not meet specifications of the bid, according to the WVC business office.

Board member Mrs. Mildred Wharton urged the board to continue aiding the West Valley Aquatic Teams in their use of the pool. She pointed out, "The nine high schools that have joined together to make up the West Valley Aquatic Teams have really given impetus to high quality community swimming program."

Mrs. Jane Koivisto of the WVAT displayed a trophy that the teams had won by Board member Mrs. Mildred Wharton urged the board placing fifth in a field of 50 at a recent local meet.

Trustees approved final plans for landscaping of the Science-Mathematics Building and the parking lot and pool area on the Saratoga Campus.

Dean of Business Services James P. Hardy pointed out that delay of the work would make routine maintenance of the existing buildings "impossible" during the rainy season. He added that excess mud and dust would mean excess wear and tear on the new facilities if landscaping were not begun soon.

Girl Scouts

NEIGHBORHOOD 15

Becky Thatcher - Huckleberry Finn Night at Rolling Hills School recently was a "blast" from start to finish. Guests were greeted to the sounds of music and the atmosphere of a barn, decorated with quaint lanterns, scarecrows and drawings on the walls. They even saw a real, live Injun Joe.

The guests were the sixth grade Junior Scouts from Troops 1030, 621 and 953, who came all dolled up in their pretty blouses and dirndl skirts. The hostesses, Cadettes of Troop 567, were the Huckleberry Finns in their overalls, blue jean shorts, checkered shirts, suspenders, straw hats and of course, freckles!

The refreshments were enjoyed tremendously. Square dancing to records, the Ho-down, Virginia Reel, etc., was perfect. Who said Girl Scouts couldn't square dance!

Bobbing for apples was great fun—even for those who watched as the girls tried their hardest to bite into the apples. They even fished for the Girl Scout Laws in a tub of water!

By the end of the evening, a tired but happy group of girls headed home. All in all, it was a very well planned and executed Bridging Event and

4th of July marked by bells, parades, fireworks

Campbell residents celebrated the Fourth of July with patriotic fervor Friday. Church and fire bells rang in the morning and fireworks were shot off in all areas, with many streets pooling their supplies for their own private "block" fireworks display. During the daytime, several neighborhoods held traditional observances complete with parades, music and prizes. The West Rincon Homeowner's Association held their third annual Fourth of July parade in the morning, starting on Cervantes and ending on Montezuma. A large group of children participated in the various categories which included the most patriotic, best decorated bike, best other wheeled vehicle, best costume and best pet. The streets were lined with interested spectators and at least one group of Campbell citizens was keenly aware of the significance of the day. Serving as co-chairmen for the parade were Mrs. Kathy Mattingly and Mrs. Jeanne Kennedy. Judges were Del Bohnsack, Erik Winkler and Laura Barfield with Art Olsen handing out the prizes.

ON WITH THE PARADE—Children in the bike category of the West Rincon Homeowners Association start off the 4th of July parade with Mrs. Jeanne Kennedy, front, chairman, directing the group. Over 100 children participated in the patriotic observance.

BEST BIKE—Kristena Hedges really did a lovely job in decorating her bike to take the best decorated bike prize in the 4th of July parade held by the West Rincon Homeowners Association. The seven-year-old is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hedges, 3719 Century Drive.

POKEY WINS TOO—Carol Oswald, six-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Oswald, 3783 Century Drive, holds Pokey the Tortoise, the first prize winner in the "Best Pet" category in the West Rincon Homeowners Association third annual 4th of July parade. On the right is Gabrielle Reddick, 11, 3723 Century, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Reddick, who won the "Most Patriotic" prize. Pokey was adorned with patriotic colors topped by a flag.
